Key Messages

- Singapore's education system is broad-based to ensure holistic development, yet flexible and diverse to meet the needs of everyone
- There are multiple educational pathways to suit your child's needs, abilities and learning styles
- We need to help them find the pathway that is the best fit for them
- Parents / Guardian and School need to work together to help child / ward to make an informed choice

Different Pathways

University Landscape: Updates

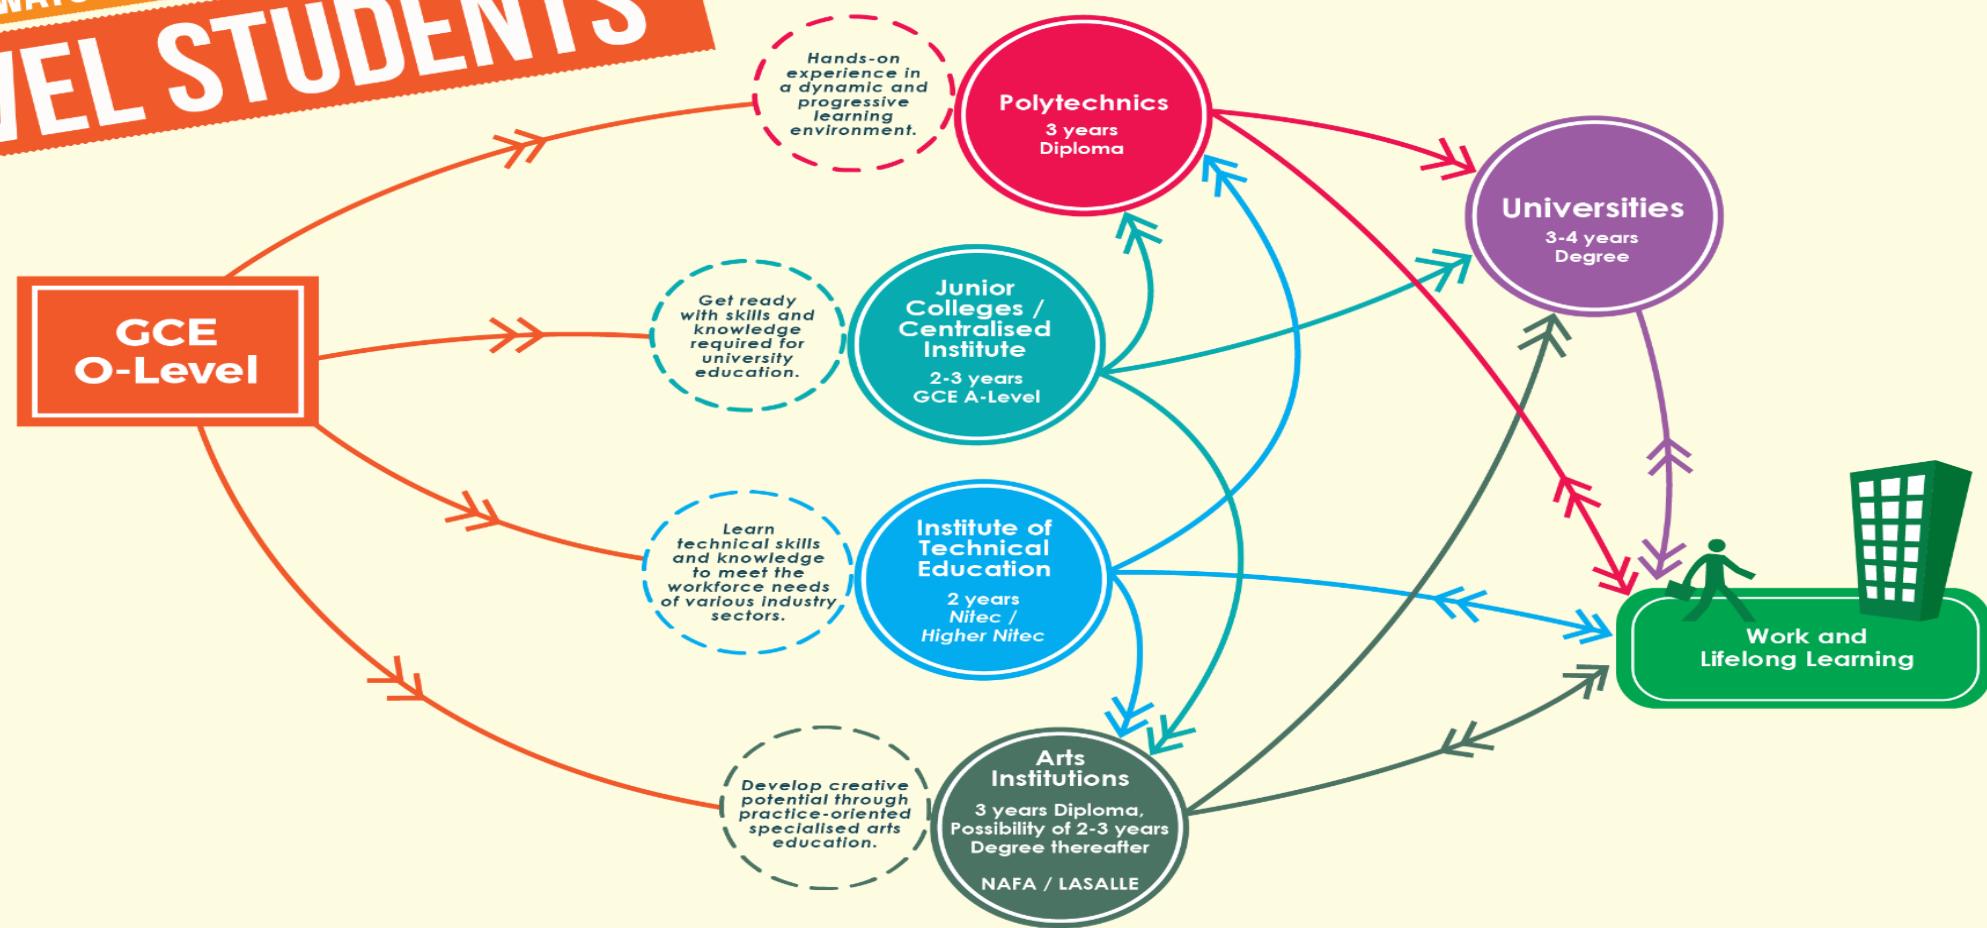

University admissions: Poly grads' O-level grades to be dropped from 2020

From 2020, polytechnic graduates applying to Singapore's local universities will not need to include their O-level results.

Only their polytechnic grade point average (GPA) will count towards the university admissions score they use in applying to the six publicly funded universities, except for certain courses with subject-specific requirements.

EAE: Polytechnic Early Admissions Exercise

- The polytechnic EAE is an aptitude-based admissions exercise that allows students to apply for and receive conditional offers for admission to polytechnics prior to receiving their final grades.
- It allows the polytechnics greater flexibility to select and admit students based on their aptitudes and interests, apart from academic grades, thus allowing a wider range of talents to be recognized.
- Application usually starts during the last week of June holidays. There are certain requirements to be fulfilled to submit the application. After which, students will be required to attend interviews, tests, etc., during term 3.
- Even when offer is accepted, student still need to meet the minimum requirement of the course i.e. L1R2B2 <=26 and must pass all the subjects.

Admissions Exercises

Candidates may apply for admission to any polytechnic course through one of the following:

Early Admissions Exercise

The Early Admissions Exercise (EAE) is an aptitude-based admissions exercise that allows students to apply and receive conditional offers for admission to the polytechnics based on their aptitudes and interests, prior to receiving their final grades. It gives the polytechnics greater flexibility to select and admit students on criteria other than their academic grades, thus allowing a wider range of talents to be recognised.

Polytechnic Foundation Program Admissions Exercise

The Polytechnic Foundation Programme (PFP) is a one-year programme that offers a practice-oriented curriculum taught by polytechnic lecturers, to better prepare polytechnic-bound N(A) students for entry into the relevant Polytechnic Diploma courses. This is an alternative to the Sec 5 year.

YISHUN SECONDARY SCHOOL
We Seek We Strive We Soar

Streaming Exercise – Key Principles

Offering our students subject combinations that will provide them with a wide range of choices for post-secondary education.

Streaming Exercise will be based on ability, interest and resource availability.

To split existing classes to smaller classes sizes

Streaming Exercise – Rationale for Banding

Students will be banded based on their aptitude for Sciences (Mathematics and Science) as well as Humanities (History, Geography and Literature)

This will serve as a guide for the streaming committee to allocate students where they can best build on their strengths

Streaming Exercise – Ranking

All students are ranked based on their overall percentage for all subjects

Rank order will affect their chances of being streamed into a class of their choice

Streaming Exercise – Subject Criteria

Some subjects require a minimum standard that students must achieve for specific subjects in their Secondary 2 examinations

However, the subject criteria may be subjected to further changes
